LUMINARIA

City Annual Arts Festival comes to Institute of Texan Cultures

WHAT:

The Institute of Texan Cultures will host activities for the annual Luminaria festival.

S.T. Shimi will perform hip-hop dance, with workshops every half-hour, 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Rodney Garza will host an ongoing, interactive theater game, "Save the Planet."

Laurel Bodinus will lead a paper mask-making activity using paints and paper shapes.

Annele Spector will instruct participants in creating small watercolor paintings using a technique called "watercolor resist," where they paint a scene using crayons and watercolor.

Cros will help people create hand-made fortune cookies with special fortunes inside.

Cheryl Alexander will lead guests in creating traditional Appalachian corn husk dolls.

WHEN:

4 p.m. – 6 p.m., Saturday, March 13, 2010

WHERE:

The Institute of Texan Cultures – Auditorium and Veranda
UTSA HemisFair Park Campus, 801 E. Durango Blvd., San Antonio, TX 78205
